

Georgetown County is an exciting place to call home.

The area features natural beauty, historical significance, and superb cultural and recreational amenities. And with Myrtle Beach and Charleston nearby, you're at the center of action.

Airports, universities, delectable restaurants, world class shopping and golf, and a wealth of history are all easily accessible to you and your family. And our 4-season climate is ideal for year-round outdoor recreation.

For boating and fishing enthusiasts, it doesn't get much better than this. There are miles of rivers, creeks, bays and the Atlantic Ocean. Pristine beaches are easily accessible throughout the area. In short, Georgetown County offers unparalleled residential coastal living, such that National Geographic recently named Georgetown County one of the nation's top 10 places for summer adventure.
